

ISA
Indian Society of Anaesthesiologists

ISA DR. ASHOK JADHAV MEMORIAL NATIONAL AWARD

The award is in the memory of Late Dr. Ashok Jadhav, a very successful, ethical, honest, and eminent private practitioner anaesthesiologist of Nagpur by his family and ISA Nagpur City Branch.

The award is for the best three free papers in the private practitioner's forum of the Annual National Conference of the Indian Society of Anaesthesiologists (ISA).

1. Only life member of ISA are eligible for the Award.
2. The Award will be given only once in a lifetime to the member.
3. The evaluation will be objective in nature as far as possible.
 - a. Priority will be given in the following order to -randomized trials, retrospective trials, case series, case reports in the above order.
 - b. Originality of the report
 - c. Novelty of the report, for example, if there is any new message or a new technique or a difficult clinical problem solved using a novel technique that can influence the anaesthesiology practice.
 - d. Does it lead to any new research ideas?
 - e. Quality of presentation, including quality of slides, sticking to time limit, language, conclusions drawn.
 - f. Quality of answers given to the judges and audience questions.
4. The presentation should not violate ethical standards and practice guidelines to the extent possible.

5. The award would consist of: First prize: Certificate, Medal and cash reward of INR 10,000 only; Second prize: Certificate, Medal and cash reward of INR 5000 only and Third Prize: Certificate, Medal and cash reward of INR 3000 only.

Dr. Sukhminder Jit Singh Bajwa
Honorary Secretary
Indian Society of Anaesthesiologists